

<https://applebone.com/job/senior-it-consultant/>

Job

Job

Job

Senior IT Consultant (m/w/d)

Description

- Shaping the digitization of public administration and advising authorities at state level
- Sustainable and intuitive co-design of administration services Web and open source based, available anytime, anywhere
- In addition to the form configuration, certain preparations must be initiated and communicated to d-NRW so that the forms can be used fully
- Identification of authorities accepting the application (VSM)
- The payment terms should be stored in the system (IBAN) and the corresponding accesses for the authorities should be created in the ticket system JIRA (Jira accesses), so that the application can be accepted and processed.

Responsibilities

- Advising authorities at state level on the digitization of public administration
- Recording and evaluating requirements
- Co-design web and open source based management services
- Handling communication with various stakeholders
- Identification and evaluation of contact persons, fee information and legal bases

Qualifications

- Completed studies (e.g., law, administrative informatics, engineering sciences) or comparable qualification with several years of professional experience
- Experience in agile project management, ideally in the public sector
- Certification in PRINCE2®, PMI or similar
- Knowledge of IT technology Environment
- ITIL® 2011 or 4.0 certification, at least in Foundation
- Good knowledge of data protection GDPR, best with certification as DPO via EXIN
- Good knowledge of ISO27001 and BSI, best with certification
- Good knowledge of open source tools
- Affinity to IT architecture or enterprise architecture
- Experience in requirements management, IREB certification will be very happy to see
- TOGAF certification is very welcome
- Analytical and structured way of working
- Very good command of German and English

Senior IT Consultant

applebone

Employment Type

Full-time, Contractor

Job Location

Munich / Remote, Germany

Date posted

2. February 2022

Valid through

31.03.2022

Bewerben Jetzt

Submit

- You bring more than five years of professional experience in the public sector
- Very good knowledge of MS Office

Job Benefits

- Exciting projects throughout Germany, most of them as remote projects
- An academy where you can certify yourself in various areas and expand your knowledge
- Participation and development: Everyone can contribute to us and contribute to advancing topics. For your personal and professional development, we offer a wide range of training opportunities.
- Dialogical corporate culture: Our working group is characterized by mutual exchange at eye level, dynamics and flat hierarchies. A central component of our cooperation culture is personal responsibility.
- Attractive working conditions: With flexible working hours, 30 vacation days and home office (mobile working) we enable a balanced work-life balance.

Contacts

bewerben@applebone.de